

Dec. 7, 2017

To whom it may concern,

Olga Grigoryants is a reporter for the Southern California News Group. She is one of the many members of our team, representing the Los Angeles Daily News and 10 other daily newspapers in the region, covering the fires that are moving through the area.

We hope that you grant her access to the command post and beyond for coverage of the day's developments.

Sincerely,

Kim Guimarin
Senior Editor -- Southern California News Group
